"In Excelsis." For schools and chapels. Cloth, 304 pp. The Century Company, New York. $35 per hundred.

This work, as its preface indicates, is largely made up of hymns from "In Excelsis" for church service with a number of carols for the special seasons of the church added; also a few hymns for small children.

Many of the hymns and tunes are standard, having been selected from the best composers and authors, which hardly need criticism here.

The new hymns and tunes are of an exceptionally high order; the melodies are generally easy, and in the range of the average voice, while the harmonizations are usually smooth and correct. A few old tunes have been re-harmonized in modern fashion, which, in the opinion of the writer, does not add to their beauty.

The work, however, is designed to elevate the standard of music in the school and chapel, and as such we give it our hearty endorsement.

PREFACE.

THE selections in this book are mainly from "In Excelsis" (which is already in use in a large number of representative churches), with the addition of many beautiful Christmas and Easter carols and hymns for young children. It is based upon the conviction that the children and young people of the church can and should be taught to sing the noblest compositions which are used in the great congregation, and that substantially the same hymns and tunes should be employed in all the services of the church. Many of the melodies are exceedingly simple, and they are generally well within the compass of children's voices. The tunes are all from the best composers.

The Ten Commandments.

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

HEAR also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Apostles' Creed.

I BELIEVE in GOD THE FATHER Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in JESUS CHRIST His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the HOLY GHOST; the holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the body; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

 My canticle divine,
 May Jesus Christ be praised!
 Be this the eternal song
 Through ages all along,
 May Jesus Christ be praised!

Every morning mercies new.

"KELSO."

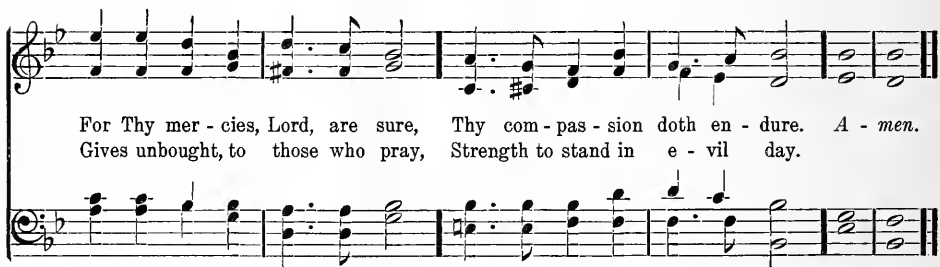

E. J. HOPKINS, 1872.

1. Ev - 'ry morn - ing mer - cies new Fall as fresh as morn - ing dew;
2. Still the great - ness of Thy love Dai - ly doth our sins re - move;

Ev - 'ry morn - ing let us pay Trib - ute with the ear - ly day;
Dai - ly, far as east from west, Lifts the bur - den from the breast;

For Thy mer - cies, Lord, are sure, Thy com - pas - sion doth en - dure. A - men.
Gives unbought, to those who pray, Strength to stand in e - vil day.

3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Feed us with the Bread of Life,
Fit us for our daily strife.

4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever blessèd Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailling prayer and praise.

Now, when the dusky shades of night.

3 If on our daily course our mind

Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

5 The trivial round, the common task,

Will furnish all we ought to ask—
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,

As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care.

6 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,

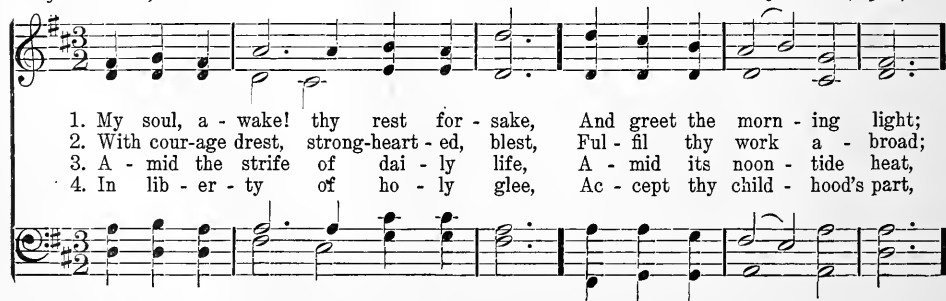

Fit us for perfect rest above,
And help us this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

The dawn of God's dear Sabbath.—Concluded.

5 So be it, Lord, for ever.
 Oh, may we evermore,
 In Jesus' holy presence
 His blessed name adore.
 Upon His peaceful Sabbath,
 Within His temple-walls—
 Type of the stainless worship
 In Zion's golden halls.

6 So that, in joy and gladness,
 We reach that home at last,
 When life's short week of sorrow
 And sin and strife is past;
 When angel-hands have gathered
 The fair, ripe fruit for Thee,
 O Father, Lord, Redeemer!
 Most Holy Trinity!

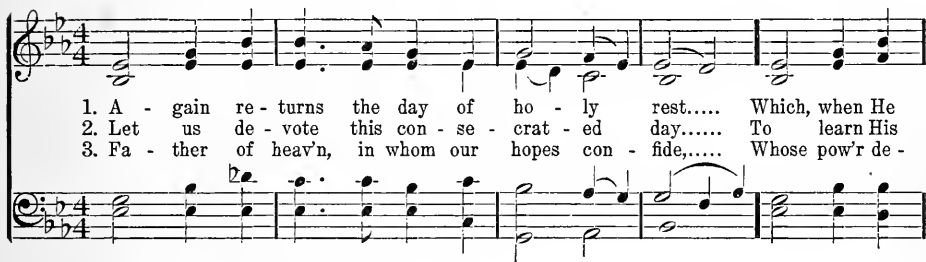

Again returns the day of holy rest.

Nor toil nor dangers stop their way;
Home, kindred, fatherland, and all,

 Christ our God, to Thee we raise
 This our hymn of grateful praise.

5 For Thyself, best Gift Divine!
 To our race so freely given,
 For that great, great love of Thine,
 Peace on earth, and joy in heaven;
 Christ our God, to Thee we raise
 This our hymn of grateful praise.

 Love on - ly know - eth whence it came, And com - pre - hend - eth love.
 In vain we search the low - est deeps, For Him no depths can drown.

4 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
 A present help is He;
 And faith has still its Olivet,
 And love its Galilee.

5 The healing of His seamless dress
 Is by our beds of pain;
 We touch Him in life's throng and press,
 And we are whole again.

6 Through Him the first fond prayers are said
 Our lips of childhood frame,
 The last low whispers of our dead
 Are burdened with His name.

7 O Lord, and Master of us all!
 Whate'er our name or sign,
 We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
 We test our lives by Thine.

The musical score is written for three staves (treble, alto, and bass clefs) in a key of B-flat major (two flats). It features a variety of note values including eighth, sixteenth, and thirty-second notes, as well as rests. The tempo markings 'rall.' (rallentando) are placed above the first and third systems of the lower staves. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes.

Jesus, from Thy throne on high.

T. B. POLLOCK, 1875. Abr.

"LITANY FOR CHILDREN."

F. A. J. HERVEY (1846—).

In unison.

1. Je - sus, from Thy throne on high, Far a - bove the bright blue sky,
 2. Lit - tle chil - dren need not fear, When they know that Thou art near:

- Look on us with lov - ing eye: Hear us, Ho - ly Je - sus. A - men.
 Thou dost love us, Sav - iour dear: Hear us, Ho - ly Je - sus.

- 3 Little hearts may love Thee well
 Little lips Thy love may tell,
 Little hymns Thy praises swell:
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 6 Once a child so good and fair,
 Feeling want, and toil, and care,
 All that we may have to bear:
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 4 Little lives may be divine,
 Little deeds of love may shine,
 Little ones be wholly Thine:
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 7 Jesus, Thou dost love us still,
 And it is Thy holy will
 That we should be safe from ill:
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 5 Jesus, once an infant small,
 Cradled in the oxen's stall,
 Though the God and Lord of all
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 8 Be Thou with us every day,
 In our work and in our play,
 When we learn and when we pray:
 Hear us, Holy Jesus.

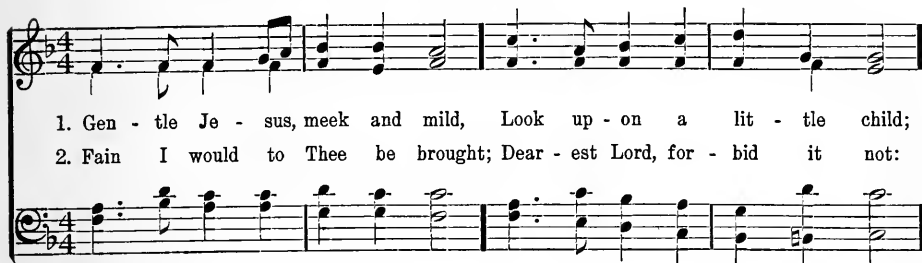

Gentle Jesus, meek and mild.

"GLEBE FIELD."

J. B. DYKES, 1874.

1. Gen - tle Je - sus, meek and mild, Look up - on a lit - tle child;
2. Fain I would to Thee be brought; Dear - est Lord, for - bid it not:

Pit - y my sim - plic - i - ty; Suf - fer me to come to Thee. A-men.
Give me, dear - est Lord, a place In the king - dom of Thy grace.

3 Lamb of God, I look to Thee,
Thou shalt my Example be:
Thou art gentle, meek, and mild,
Thou wast once a little child.

6 Thou didst live to God alone,
Thou didst never seek Thine own,
Thou Thyself didst never please;
God was all Thy happiness.

4 Fain I would be as Thou art,
Give me Thine obedient heart;
Thou art pitiful and kind,
Let me have Thy loving mind.

7 Loving Jesus, gentle Lamb,
In Thy gracious hands I am;
Make me, Saviour, what Thou art,
Live Thyself within my heart.

5 Let me, above all, fulfil
God my Heavenly Father's will;
Never His good Spirit grieve,
Only to His glory live.

8 I shall then show forth Thy praise,
Serve Thee all my happy days;
Then the world shall always see
Christ, the Holy Child, in me.

 2. Lo, such the child whose ear - ly feet The paths of peace have trod,
 3. By cool Si - lo - am's sha - dy rill The lil - y must de - cay;
 4. And soon, too soon the win - try hour Of man's ma - tur - er age

How sweet the breath, be - neath the hill, Of Shar - on's dew - y rose! A - men.

 The rose that blooms be - neath the hill Must short - ly fade a - way.
 Will shake the soul with sor - row's pow'r, And storm - y pas - sion's rage.

5 O Thou, whose infant feet were found
 Within Thy Father's shrine,
 Whose years with changeless virtue crowned,
 Were all alike divine:

6 Dependent on Thy bounteous breath,
 We seek Thy grace alone,
 In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
 To keep us still Thine own.

J. B. DYKES, 1870.

1. Thou that once, by mother's knee, Wast a lit - tle one, like me, When I wake or go to bed,
 2. Be be - side me in the light, Close by me thro' all the night; Make me gen - tle, kind and true,
 3. Thou art near me when I pray, Thou art nev - er far a - way; Thou my lit - tle hymn wilt hear,

Thou that once, by mother's knee.—Concluded.

Lay Thy hands about my head; Let me feel Thee ver-y near, Jesus Christ, our Saviour dear. A-men.
Do as I am bid to do; Help and cheer me when I fret, And forgive when I for-get.
Jesus Christ, our Saviour dear,—Thou that once, by mother's knee, Wast a little one, like me.
